REMARKS

1135 - 1200 This the day of our Lord December Three Moved port side to pier 5 D
 At the Naval Shipyard, Puget Sound
 Bremerton, Washington we are found
 Six nylon lines doubled and tight
 Keep us to the pier snug and right
 Our water is coming from the pier
 but power and steam are made right here
 In ship service generators 1A and 1B
 the boiler in use, 1B I see.
 The U.S.S. Ranger across the way has in it the captain called G.O.P.A.
 The U.S.S. Jaquet is now in commission
 Com Thirtien gave his permission
 Captain Robert S Hayes assumed his command
 To set the first watch is his demand
 The watch came aboard and the first OOD
 Is T.W. Huckabone, Lieutenant (jg)
 The ship is now manned, sailors full and proud soon to be followed by an anxious crowd
 To tour the ship and see inside
 The sailor's home, how does he reside?
 The ceremony over and we as one give the shipyard workers a big well done

Thudora W. Huckabone, LTJG USN
