REMARKS

00-04 'Tis now eight bells and all is well with JOVETT and her crew;
 The New Year finds her safely moored, port side against Pier Two,
 Berth twenty-six-S-two she fills, the stately "Jolly J,"
 At U.S. Naval Station, San Diego, U.S.A.

Her mooring lines are doubled with a storm line fore and aft,
 And various First Fleet ships are here, plus yard and district craft.

Our steam from 1B boiler comes, our water from the pier,
 While 1B generator's light dispels our darkness here.

COMFIRSTFLEET is SOPA now in USS SAINT PAUL;
 Condition Yoke is set below, and calm reigns over all.
 The night is clear and Christmas lights are still seen all around,

While New Year's mirth and merriment on every hand abound.

Yes, '68 has come and gone and left us in its wake
 To carry on through '69 the task we undertake:
 To do our best to make this world a place where freedom
 reigns,
 That we may prosper in the joy which lasting peace
 sustains.
